Dear Chief Justice ,

Re. Lands of Joseph Jnr & his 'registered Company' Golden Anchorage

Please see attached 'Power of Attorney' from CIBC, witness by that thieving half white lawyer boy, Peter Richard Packer Evelyn of Peter Evelyn & Co., the Law firm that prepared my Conveyance deed; Golden Anchorage Limited to Joseph Jordan Jnr in the year 1986, a 'receipt' and 'Conveyance' prepared & witness by the Honourable Cicely P. Chase and Randall Worrell in the year 1991 and 2006 respectively .

However, in this our democratic and Judicial System, why Wilfred Abrahams Elneth Kentish and Jackie Cornelius (lawyers) Dennis Small and Roger Babb (Policemen at Holetown) afraid to admit, apologise and resign .

Has Barbados Judicial System now become that of and with a mob style?

Yours truly & God Bless ,

Dear Valued Client,

Re: Important changes to the Fees on your Business Banking Account

The current economic, liquidity and regulatory environment has caused us to revisit the way we manage larger account balances in Barbados.

Effective August 1, 2018 we are introducing a fee for business clients with large deposit balances (large defined as Five Million Barbados Dollars or more). The respective fees are shown in the following schedule:

Balance (BBD)	Fee (%)	Fee Calculation
$5,000,000.00 to $9,999,999.99	0.50	The fee is computed on the daily closing balance and charged monthly on the last business day of the month.
$10,000,000.00 to $19,999,999.99	1.00
$20,000,000.00 and over	2.00

We encourage you to contact your Relationship Manager should you have any questions and/or require guidance on how to effectively manage your surplus cash holdings.

We value your business and thank you for making RBC Royal Bank your choice for financial services.

Yours sincerely,

M.A. Robert de Silva

RE: Manually Keyed Transactions

Dear Merchant,

As your provider for Merchant Services, we are continually reviewing our operations to ensure that they meet and exceed global standards. In this regard, a decision was taken to remove the capability of allowing manually keyed credit cards transactions on your Point of sale terminal.

This will take effect from August 1, 2017

This change will help prevent fraudulent transactions and reduce costly chargebacks by ensuring that the cards you accept are valid.

At Scotiabank we appreciate your business and continually work to bring value to your business by ensuring your credit and debit card transactions are secure.

Should you have any questions regarding this notice, please do not hesitate to contact your Relationship Manager.

Yours Sincerely,

Sentence postponed

David Foster, of Sunset Crest, St. James, will have to wait until later in the Assizes to know his fate after he was found guilty yesterday of fraud involving more than $36,000. Mr. Justice Errol Chase postponed sentencing of the 32-year-old salesman.

Advocate 17th Oct 1989

Car salesman guilty of fraud, jury finds

Golden Anchor Insurance Limited

DAVID WINSTON FOSTER was found guilty of two charges yesterday, but was remanded until later in this Assizes, when he will know his fate.

The jury of seven men and two women took less than 30 minutes to return a unanimous verdict on the charges which were: that on February 2, last year, Foster, with intent to defraud, forged a Royal Bank of Canada cheque purported to be signed by Joseph Jordan, for payment to Dave's Auto Leasing of the sum of $36 380; and that on the same date, Foster uttered the cheque with intent to defraud, knowing it to be forged.

In mitigation, Foster's lawyer Ezra Alleyne begged Mr. Justice Errol Chase not to impose a custodial sentence. He said his client was one of the better car salesmen in Barbados, and that he was father of a recently-born child.

Alleyne also made reference to a case in the current Assizes when a person was fined after being "convicted of a case of equal seriousness".

The attorney said it was a case where his client experienced temporary cash-flow difficulties, and that neither he nor his business received any benefits from the funds because the draft was stopped.

An important point to note, Alleyne said, was that within a day the $36 380 entry had been regularised and that neither the bank nor Joseph Jordan lost any funds.

Before Foster was remanded, Sergeant Harold Maycock of the Criminal Records Office informed the court that the salesman had a clean record in Barbados, but that a check with Interpol in Ottawa, Canada, confirmed he had chalked up 11 convictions there.

According to Sergeant Maycock:

- On March 27, 1979, Foster was fined $300 in 30 days and placed on one year's probation, after he was convicted for fraud.
- On June 28, 1979 he was convicted in Toronto for two charges of attempted false pretences and one charge of attempted fraud of over $200. He was sentenced to two months on each count, to run concurrently.
- On July 1979, in London, Ontario, he was convicted of three charges of false pretences of over $200, and was sentenced to three concurrent months on each count, to run concurrent with the sentence he was serving at the time.
- On November 5, 1980, in Crampton, Ontario, he was convicted for uttering a forged document, sentence was suspended, and he was placed on three years probation.
- On December 17, 1982, in Crampton, Ontario, Foster was convicted on two charges of uttering forged documents. He was sentenced to five months on each charge, to run concurrently.

Alleyne and Jackie Cornelius represented the salesman.

MRS JUSTICE ERROL CHASE imposed fines on two men and sentenced another to Glendalyng Prisons, when they reappeared before him for sentencing in the No. 5 Supreme Court yesterday — the final day of the 1989 October Assizes. David Winston Foster, a salesman of No. 56 Hibiscus Ave., Sunset Crest, St. James, was fined $5 000 in six months, with the alternative of two years' imprisonment for forgery. Foster was found guilty last October 16 of uttering a forged Royal Bank of Canada cheque purported to be signed by Joseph Jordan, for payment to Dave's Auto Leasing, for the sum of $36 380 on February 2 last year.

"I NEVER GAVE the accused my cheque book on February 2, last year, and told him to write a cheque for whatever amount of money he wanted."

This was stated yesterday by Joseph Jordan, of Sunset Crest, St. James, who said that he saw David Foster, who is accused of forging and uttering one of Jordan's cheques, around 9:30 a.m. on that date.

He said the accused visited his home and was offered a drink allowed to use the telephone and bathroom. The complainant, who is the managing director of a real estate firm, said that while the accused, a car salesman, was sitting in the living-room, he went outside to the garden where they had a conversation before going back into the house where he and Foster continued their conversation. He said the accused left and around 2 p.m., he went to the

CAR SALESMAN FRAUD CASE

THE TRIAL of David Winston Foster, of Hibiscus Avenue, Sunset Crest, St. James, continues this morning in the No. 5 Supreme Court before Mr. Justice Evelyn Chase.

The accused is a 40-year-old car salesman and was arraigned yesterday on a two-count indictment. The first is that on February 2, last year, he, with intent to defraud, forged a Royal Bank of Canada cheque purporting to be signed by Joseph Jordan, for payment to Dave's Auto Leasing the sum of $36 880. The second is that on the same day, he uttered that cheque with intent to defraud, knowing it to be forged.

He pleaded not guilty to both counts. Attorneys Ezra Alynne and Jackie Cornwell are appearing for the accused while Acting Senior Crown Counsel, Charles Leacock, is prosecuting.

Royal Bank of Canada at Sunset Crest to make a transaction. After speaking to an employee, he went to the Black Rock, 86 Midland, branch where he spoke to a Mrs. Francis, the officer in charge there, about the withdrawal of $36 880, which he had not authorized.

where he identified the cheque as one stolen from his cheque book. The accused, who was present, said that it was Jordan who had signed the cheque.

Under cross-examination, the witness denied that he had given Foster a blank cheque, stating that he could sign his name and write whatever figure he wanted, and that the money would be a short term loan; failing to repay, he would use his signature against him. He however admitted that the accused called his home on February 2, saying something about a cheque and that he was sorry.

Jordan said that he was upset when he discovered the money was missing from his account, and did not want to talk to the accused. He also said that he never visited the salesman's home but had bought him a ticket to attend a fete at the Beach Club.

He said that on February 22, last year, he went to the CID

WILLIAM DUGUID, of Newton Terrace, Christ Church, said that he received a bank draft for $43 800 from accused, David Foster, a car salesman. Duguid said the accused told him that $800 was interest on the money which had been entrusted to him as a down-payment on a car.

This witness, the first for the prosecution in the fraud trial against Foster, told the court that he first met the accused sometime in November 1987, when he visited M.G. Tucker to buy a Honda Integra. He said he gave the salesman a cheque for $20 000 and a bank draft for $23 000, but that might be could not sleep, so he went back in the business house the following morning and took back the cheque and draft and gave them to a Mrs. Tucker for safe-keeping.

The business proprietor stated that he met with the accused sometime later, and was told that the Integra sale was being discontinued and he was being discontinued and he was advised to buy a Civic.

He said on January 12, last year, he went to the garage where he saw the accused, who said he knew why Duguid was there and that he would make things right with him. He said the accused gave him a cheque which was not accepted by the bank, and when they met again, he was given a bank draft for $43 800, which was good and payable, and that he received a bonus for his money. The case was adjourned until this morning.
